

VR Escape-the-Room game Last Labyrinth joins BitSummit 7 Spirits Lineup

May 10, 2019, Tokyo – The LL Project Production Committee (Amata K.K., VAP Inc.) has announced that VR escape-the-room adventure game Last Labyrinth will take part in the BitSummit 7 Spirits exhibition, to be held at the Kyoto International Exhibition Hall Miyako Messe on June 1-2.

Biggest Indie Game Event in Japan

Following in the footsteps of the recent exhibition of the special Last Labyrinth demo at Niconico Chokaigi 2019, the Bitsummit 7 Spirits Last Labyrinth booth will once again feature a unique demo version of the game. Visitors on both days will be able to try their hand at solving puzzles alongside Katia, the mysterious girl voiced by Stefanie Joosten.

About Last Labyrinth

An escape-the-room adventure game that can only be experienced in VR, Last Labyrinth was created specifically for the VR age. Players must work to escape a mansion full of hidden dangers with a mysterious girl that appears before them.

The full version will receive a multi-platform, worldwide release (download only) in Summer of 2019.

Development of Last Labyrinth is being spearheaded by Hiromichi Takahashi, director and producer of the acclaimed Doko Demo Issyo (PlayStation® 1999) series and co-creator of Toro (the Sony Cat). Working alongside Mr. Takahashi is a diverse team, many of whom are industry veterans with resumes featuring titles that are household names around the world.

Stefanie Joosten, the voice and likeness of Quiet from Metal Gear Solid V: The Phantom Pain (2015) and international model, actress, voice-actress and singer, will be the voice of Katia, the mysterious girl that players work together with.

The Last Labyrinth theme song is composed by renowned video game music composer Hiroki Kikuta, whose works include the music of Seiken Denetsu 2, Seiken Denetsu 3, Sōkaigi and other titles. The theme song is also sung by Stefanie Joosten.
